

our favorite Beers & Lagers.

Corona
The Mexican preference
A light 4.6% with an added tang of lime wedge. Interestingly the slice of lime is not mandatory in its motherland.

Heineken
This tasty 5% pale lager hails from the Netherlands since 1864. Its light & smooth taste has made it the world's most popular lager.

Żywiec
Founded in Austria. Now the most popular lager in Poland, this fantastic beverage is great with cold meats or alone.

Carlsberg
This Danish giant and staple of the lager world needs little introduction.

Stella Artois
The Belgian 5.2% classic, adored by pubs & bars nationwide. Contains a very rich & sharp taste. Similar to many Czech lagers.

Desperados
Infamous for its Tequila infusion. With an aroma of hay and malt. Add an extra shot of Tequila for a real kick!

Peroni
Italy's pale amber with a spritzy head. Aroma and flavours match, light malt with a mild flowery hop.

Grolsch
Another Dutch classic. Pours a brilliant yellow gold with flavours & aromas of sweet malts, with a mild effervescence.

San Miguel
This refreshing malty staple of Brits abroad has a slightly lemony start with a crisp bitter finish.

Kronenbourg
France's number 1. A sweet & malty taste with a touch of honey. A very neutral lager, excels at summer refreshment.
